MEMORANDUM FOR ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF THE ARMY

SUBJECT: Charter Renewal for the Army Education Advisory Committee

1. Recommend renewal of the Army Education Advisory Committee (AEAC) Charter. The AEAC provides a vital link between the Army and the nation's civilian education and training community providing a valuable resource to further the Army's training and education objectives. The AEAC also provides credible and independent analyses identifying important issues that present Army leadership with alternative courses of action.
2. The AEAC consists of five subcommittees, each designated to support a different aspect of the Army's training and Soldier support missions. Additionally, Boards of Visitors provide advice to their institutions, assisting in the maintenance of higher academic standards, and ensuring that Army educational policies and techniques are relevant, current, and equal to those found in the finest institutions of higher education.
3. Should you require any additional information or assistance please feel free to contact Mr. Wayne Joyner, AEAC Executive Secretary, at (757) 788-5890.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Tom Lamont", is positioned above the typed name.
